$3,500 in Prizes to Artists

---

It is our purpose to combine in Osborne Art Calendars the qualities that appeal alike to the connoisseur and the layman. Osborne Calendars must be good art and they must be popular. As each year's line is wholly new, we require annually several hundred high-class original paintings and designs. These prizes are offered for the purpose of stimulating the production of the kind of picture we want.

Leading artists take satisfaction in having their work reproduced by this company, knowing that Osborne Art Calendars annually go into millions of homes and that they exert a wide and constant influence in raising the popular appreciation of good art.

The following are only a few of the artists whose recent paintings are reproduced in 1903 Osborne Calendars.

J. G. BROWN, N. A.

JAMES M. HART, N. A.

GEORGE R. BARSE, Jr., N. A.

W. VERPLANCK BIRNEY, A. N. A.

CHARLES C. CURRAN, A. N. A.

HARRY ROSELAND.

CARLETON WIGGINS, A. N. A.

J. L. G. FERRIS.

FRANCIS C. JONES, N. A.

A. F. TAIT, N. A.

H. R. POORE.

J. H. DOLPH, N. A.

LOUIS MOELLER, N. A.

There are five prizes of $500 each, to be awarded by a jury of three well-known critics, and a popular prize of $1,000 to be awarded by the vote of about forty thousand calendar buyers in the United States. All satisfactory pictures or designs that do not win prizes will be purchased at a fair price. Artists and designers may obtain full particulars upon application.
